

National Seminar organized by SMS Lucknow discusses impact of Global Warming on Glaciers

March 27, 2023 Lucknow Tribune

Lucknow: One-day National Seminar on Source of Planet, Environment and Disaster Science: Impact of Glacier Melting and Climate Change (SPEED 2022-23) was organized by The Institution of Engineers (India), U.P. State Center, Lucknow and School of Management Sciences, Lucknow (SMS) on 26 March, 2023 and supported by MNIT, Alumni Association.

This program was presided over by Er. R.K.Trivedi, former Chairman, IEI, UP State Center, Lucknow. The Chief Guest of event was Dr. R.K.Singh, Technical Advisor, UP Pollution Control Board and Special Guest Dr. Jyotsna Singh, Director Center for Excellence Renewable Energy Lucknow University. Dr. P.K.Bharti, Head of the Department Mechanical Engineering, Integral University, Lucknow was also present as the Keynote Speaker on the occasion.

Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Mehrotra, Director, SMS Lucknow welcomed the guests, delegates & audience Dr. Bharat Raj Singh, Director General (Technical) SMS Lucknow threw light on the topic of the seminar in front of the audience and urged on the dangers of climate change. Shri R.K.Singh, Technical Adviser, UP Pollution Control Board, Chief Guest emphasized on the importance of each and every word chosen as the theme of the seminar and advised to change the lifestyle, which may be the solution of current issue. Guest of Honour Dr. Jyotsna Singh told about the importance of renewable energy, while Dr. P.K.Bharti emphasized on the importance of using technical know-how of solar energy.

In the technical sessions, Dr. Suresh Chandra Bajpai and Dr. Venkatesh Dutta, Prof. B.B.A.U. gave special information on the subject of renewable energy and water harvesting respectively and also conducted the sessions smoothly.

The valedictory session was presided over by Dr. Usha Bajpai, former Professor, Center of Renewable Energy and Research, Lucknow University and Shri B.C. Roy. President MNNIT Alumni Association, Lucknow Chapter and Prof. Ashok Kumar Tiwari, General Secretary, MNNIT Alumni Association Lucknow welcomed the guests & vote of thanks extended by Dr. Dharmendra Singh, Associate Director, SMS.

The Chief Executive Officer of SMS Lucknow, Mr. Sharad Singh congratulated the organizers for the success of event and motivated the students and teachers to work towards environmental protection through technical education. More than 50-technical papers on various topics of the seminar was presented, which was followed by distribution of mementos and certificates to the attendees.

On this occasion Dr. Jagdish Singh, C.G.M., Dr. Ashish Bhatnagar, Principal LU Courses, Dr. V.B.Singh, Joint Director, Mr. Surendra Srivastava, General Manager, SMS, Lucknow were also present.

<https://thelucknowtribune.com/national-seminar-organized-by-sms-lucknow-discusses-impact-of-global-warming-on-glaciers/>