Lucknow: Prof. (Dr.) Bharat Raj Singh, Director General (Technical) of School of Management Sciences, Lucknow, has received global recognition as a Senior Scientific Reviewer by Elsevier, a leading international journal of science and technology.

Dr. Singh, nominated by Elsevier in 2010, has contributed extensively over the past 15 years to the assessment of research papers, particularly in the energy sector, with a focus on global warming and climate change. Laura Hinsink, Managing Director of Elsevier, praised Dr. Singh's dedication and expertise, expressing gratitude for his invaluable contributions.

Acknowledging the honor, Dr. Singh stated, "This recognition is a significant milestone in my life, and I am deeply thankful to Elsevier."

An esteemed expert in global warming, Dr. Singh has also invented the Air-O-Bike, included in the curriculum of American schools. Additionally, his achievements have been recognized by the Limca Book of Records in 2014, 2015, and 2017, further cementing his status as a global scientific leader.
