

OPINION 8

ALL IS NOT WELL IN THE MIDDLE KINGDOM

WORLD 11

US JUDGE BLOCKS RELEASE OF 3D GUN BLUEPRINTS

SPORT 15

SINDHU, SRIKANTH
WIN AT WORLD C'SHIP

Established 1864

Published From

DELHI LUCKNOW BHOPAL
BHUBANESWAR RANCHI RAIPUR
CHANDIGARH DEHRADUN

Late City Vol. 154 Issue 209

*Air Surcharge Extra if Applicable

LUCKNOW, THURSDAY AUGUST 2, 2018; PAGES 16 ₹3

I LEARN TO ACCEPT
LOSSES: VIRAT
14 VIVACITY

the pioneer

www.dailypioneer.com

 the pioneer

LUCKNOW | THURSDAY | AUGUST 2, 2018

city 04

Kalam anniv: SMS gets first position

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ LUCKNOW

The School of Management Sciences has secured the first position in the Dr Kalam Entrepreneurship League (KEL) in the year 2018-19. The third anniversary of the passage of 11th President APJ Abdul Kalam was celebrated on July 27 at the Pravasi Bhartiya Kendra, New Delhi, in order to felicitate the visionary colleges of AKTU which have made a significant contributions in startups and innovations creating that edge above their peers.

The startup projects of students from different institutes were invited by the K-CIIS and SMS, Lucknow, was selected first amongst 615 institutions (330 -management and 285- engineering and technology) of AKTU at this prestigious award distribution ceremony.

On behalf of the SMS, Lucknow, Rudresh Singh, a member of the management committee, and Prof (Dr) Bharat Raj Singh, Director General (Technical), SMS, Lucknow, received the award at the event.

The event witnessed the presence of vice- chairman, Niti Aayog, Dr Rajiv Kumaras the chief guest, Secretary General, Rajya Sabha, Desh Deepak Verma, and Member of Parliament, Lok Sabha, Meeenakshi Lekhi as the guests of honour.