

Dr. Gautam Bhattacharyya is an academician by profession and an environmentalist by passion. He has his post-graduation in Botany and further in Bioinformatics. He had the opportunity to work under the tutelage of some best renowned scientists from the field of Botany and Ecology in India and abroad. His work on the 'Impact of the Introduced Exotic Tree Species on the Forest Ecosystem of Kumaun (Uttarakhand)' is the pioneer work in India on the invasion of exotic pines in the Indian subcontinent.