A Strong Indian Academic Presence in the Global Research Arena-Elsevier Journals Formally Acknowledge Prof. Bharat Raj Singh, for Outstanding Peer-Review Contributions

Lucknow | Globally renowned academic publishing organization Elsevier Journals has formally expressed its appreciation to Prof. Bharat Raj Singh, Senior Academician and Researcher and Director General, School of Management Sciences, Lucknow, for his outstanding peer-review contributions during the year 2025, which significantly strengthened the global research community.

In a letter of appreciation issued by the Elsevier Journals Leadership Team, it was stated that the time, rigorous academic judgment, and expert evaluation provided by Prof. Bharat Raj Singh played a decisive role in enhancing the quality, credibility, and scientific direction of published research.

The letter further emphasized that peer review is the cornerstone of robust, ethical, and effective scholarly research. The insight and intellectual commitment of dedicated reviewers like Prof. Singh drive research communities forward and provide a reliable foundation for innovation. Although this work is often carried out behind the scenes, its impact is far-reaching and enduring.

In her message, Laura Hassink, Managing Director, Elsevier Journals, stated:

“The contribution of Prof. Bharat Raj Singh ensures that the research we publish meets rigorous academic standards and delivers genuine value to the communities it serves.”

Elsevier also reaffirmed its commitment to further strengthening the peer-review experience as it moves into 2026. This includes providing clearer guidance, more relevant review invitations, and enhanced recognition of reviewers' invaluable contributions.

The internationally recognized contribution of Prof. Bharat Raj Singh is not only a matter of pride for the Indian academic community but also a source of inspiration for young researchers, reinforcing the principle that the advancement of knowledge is driven by academic integrity, intellectual fairness, and unwavering dedication.
